

A photograph of St Peter's Church in Eaton Square, London. The church is a neoclassical building with a prominent portico supported by six tall, fluted columns. The portico has a triangular pediment. Above the portico is a square tower with two circular windows and a smaller square tower above it, topped with a dome and a golden cross. The church is surrounded by green trees and bushes. The sky is blue with some white clouds. A red banner is overlaid on the top right of the image, containing the church's name in white serif font.

ST PETER'S EATON SQUARE

Welcome to our vibrant parish Church in the heart of London, just a few minutes walk from Victoria Station. We are an inclusive Church and believe that God's love in Christ is for everyone. Each Sunday we worship God at a lively Family Eucharist, and a beautiful Sung Eucharist.

MONDAY TO FRIDAY

- 7.30am Morning Prayer
- 12.30pm The Eucharist (and 8am Wednesdays)
- 5pm Evening Prayer (when possible)

SUNDAY

- 8.15am Holy Communion (BCP)
- 9.45am Family Eucharist - joyful and family-friendly worship.
- 11.15am Sung Eucharist - beautiful liturgy with our outstanding professional choir.

The church is normally open throughout the day. For information about our pre-school playgroup, St Peter's Poppets, Youth Group, quiet days, study groups, social events, charitable activities, baptisms, marriages, funerals and memorials, see our website and contact us.

The Church, comfortable Parish Hall and smaller rooms are available to hire for concerts, meetings and events, and daily or long-term car parking is available all year.
